Local Feature

Chicago Restaurant week

We Are In The Final Stretch!

Chicago foodies, rejoice! Chicago Restaurant Week is back for its 18th year, and this is your chance to savor the best of the city's culinary scene without breaking the bank. From January 24 to February 9, enjoy specially curated prix fixe menus at over 500 incredible eateries for brunch ($25), lunch ($25), or dinner ($45/$60). There's still a few days left, with so many options, why not explore a new favorite spot or two?

Live Well

Chinatown Lunar New Year Parade

Celebrate the Year of the Snake in Chinatown at the neighborhood's official Lunar New Year parade on Sun, Feb 9, 2025, which falls after the arrival of Chinese New Year (January 29). Attendees line Wentworth Avenue to see marching bands, decorated floats, and traditional lion dancers. The colorful procession begins at 24th Street and Wentworth Avenue at 1 pm, traveling north to Cermak Road.
