Thanks For Joining Last Month!

Valentine's Social

We enjoyed connecting with all the guests who attended our lovely Valentine's event, sharing delicious drinks and snacks. Despite the harsh winter weather, we gathered around the fire to enjoy each other's company.

Le Deux Champagne Club

Meet your neighbors, Cat and Garth—the passionate duo behind Le Deux Champagne Club! Their journey started years ago during the pandemic. They began supporting small family growers in the Champagne region by bringing them to the United States. Garth spent over a decade as a sommelier at Michelin-starred spots like Per Se and The French Laundry and was the U.S. Ambassador for Krug Champagne. Cat has spent 20+ years designing and building restaurants nationwide! Together, they've turned their love for champagne into Champagne Happy Hour, bringing small-grower bottles to the U.S. and hosting events across Chicago. Stay connected—follow their Instagram to keep up with their events, champagne club, and all the local fun!

Live Well

St. Patrick's Day In Chicago

Chicago's iconic St. Patrick's Day celebrations return in 2025 with the annual river dyeing on March 15 at 10 a.m., turning the Chicago River a brilliant shade of green. The festivities continue with the downtown parade at noon, featuring floats, Irish dancers, and marching bands along Columbus Drive. Neighborhood parades, lively bar crawls, and special river cruise events add to the city's vibrant Irish spirit, making it a must-experience weekend for locals and visitors alike.

Pet Of The Month

Meet Burgy!

Say hello to adorable Burgy—short for Hamburger! This 3-year-old Catahoula Leopard Dog moved from Napa to city life and has adapted beautifully. She's a true Marlowe favorite with her striking blue eyes, sweet and empathetic nature, and just the right amount of excitement. After losing her sister, she recently stepped into the role of an only pup and has been embracing life with endless energy. Burgy loves carrots, meeting new friends, and testing the limits of every toy she gets her paws on. Next time you see her, say hi—she loves everyone!
